

Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) for Proposed Development of Clinical Waste Thermal Treatment Plant at Tanjung Langsat, Johor for Southern Medi One Sdn. Bhd.

(Report No: AMR.2018.SMOSB.EIA)

PREAMBLE

The Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) Study was commissioned for the Proposed Development of Clinical Waste Thermal Treatment Plant at Tanjung Langsat, Johor for Southern Medi One Sdn. Bhd. (SMOSB).

The project was initiated in 27th November 2017 and the Terms of Reference (TOR) for the EIA was submitted on 2nd January 2018 to the Department of Environment (DOE) and approved on 2nd March 2018. The study involves baseline environmental monitoring and surveys at the project site and its surrounding areas, the evaluation of potential impacts and recommendations for Pollution Prevention and Mitigation Measures (P2M2). The EIA report comprises the following sections:

- |                          |  |
|--------------------------|--|
| EXECUTIVE SUMMARY | - Non-technical Executive Summary in English and Bahasa Malaysia   |
| TECHNICAL REPORT  | - Prepared in English with findings of the impact assessment and mitigation measures supplemented by maps, figures, tables, photographs and appendices |
| FIGURES           | - Figures attached for reference purposes  |
| APPENDICES        | - Attachments and supporting documents for the EIA report  |